With the delay of the 2021 Grammy Awards to March 14 citing the current surge of COVID-19 cases in California, on January 13, 2021, the SAG Awards were delayed once again to April 4. SAG-AFTRA criticized The Recording Academy for not respecting the scheduling of other award presentations.<sup>42</sup> In Canada, the pandemic shutdown forced the cancellation of both the 8th Canadian Screen Awards<sup>43</sup> and the 22A Quebec Cinema Awards.<sup>44</sup> Both programs ultimately announced their winners through virtual livestreaming, the Canadian Screen Awards presenting film winners on May 28,<sup>45</sup> and the Quebec Cinema Awards presented on June 10.<sup>46</sup> As of August 2020, neither the Academy of Canadian Cinema and Television nor Québec Cinéma have announced their plans for the 2021 ceremonies.

The August 26 release of Tenet marked the first major U.S. blockbuster film to be released theatrically. Due to safety concerns in the United States, the film premiered in 70 international markets through a staggered release model, before being released in select U.S. cities on September 3.<sup>112</sup> Its box office revenue had reached 0 million by September 6, 2020, with a modest million in the United States.<sup>113</sup> In September 2020, Sony Pictures Entertainment Chairman Tony Vinciguerra stated that the company will not release any big budget films to theatres until the pandemic is over.<sup>114</sup> On October 2, No Time to Die was delayed once more to April 2, 2021, due to a requirement for the film to have a worldwide theatrical audience. This came amid continued closures of cinemas in the key U.S. markets of Los Angeles and New York City, as well the reinstatement of restrictions in the United Kingdom due to a second wave.<sup>115</sup> As Universal Pictures held the international distribution rights to No Time to Die, its film F9 was delayed to May 28, 2021 Memorial Day weekend as to not cannibalize it.<sup>116</sup> No Time to Die has since been postponed again to September 30 in the UK and October 8 in the U.S.<sup>117</sup><sup>118</sup> In March 2021, F9 was postponed once again to June 25.<sup>119</sup>

Although San Francisco County began to allow cinemas to reopen on October 7, the majority of cinemas remain closed due to a boycott by the National Association of Theatre Owners of CaliforniaNevada, due to local guidelines prohibiting the sale of concessions. The group stated that this restriction makes it economically impossible for our members to reopen and significantly limits the moviegoing experience for our audiences.<sup>191</sup> Cinemark announced later that month that it would reopen selected cinemas in the Bay Area and Santa Clara County, operating in compliance with the concessions prohibition.<sup>192</sup> On October 17, New York announced that it will allow cinemas outside New York City and situated in counties with a 14-day average of cases below 2% to reopen on October 23, at a maximum capacity of 50 patrons per-screen.<sup>193</sup> On November 9, 2020, Regal announced that the selected California and New York locations it had recently reopened would close indefinitely November 12.<sup>194</sup> The same day, the share prices of AMC, Cinemark, and Disney rose on early reports by Pfizer on the efficacy of a COVID-19 vaccine in development by the company and BioNTech.<sup>195</sup><sup>196</sup>
